

Featured Guest Speaker

Pastor Gina Stewart

Reverend Gina Marcia Stewart currently serves as Pastor of Christ Missionary Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee. She is the first African American female elected to serve a Baptist congregation in Shelby County. She was elected by majority vote in March 1995. Rev. Stewart accepted the call to preach in December 1989 and was licensed and ordained in February 1990 and May 1990 respectively. She is a 1978 graduate of Memphis Catholic High School. She earned a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Marketing in 1982 from the University of Memphis. In 1989, she received a Master of Education in Administration and Supervision from Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, Tennessee. She graduated cum laude from Memphis Theological Seminary where she received the Master of Divinity degree, May 1996. At the graduation ceremony, she received the Outstanding African American student award and the award for Excellence in Homiletics. Rev. Stewart also attended the Harvard Divinity School Summer Leadership Institute for Church Based Community and Economic Development (2000). She is currently enrolled at Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC)-Atlanta, Georgia where she is pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree. She is one of the contributing devotional writers for the African American Devotional Bible (Zondervan Publications) and she is also one of the contributing authors for the Whole Life Stewardship Bible Study (Education/Training Commission of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention) and for the book entitled Careful Preaching-from Sermon to Caring Community-Chalice Press. Under the leadership of Pastor Stewart, the church has grown from approximately 500 members to more than 2,500. The church offers more than forty ministries which are intended to minister to the Spirit, Soul and Body of every person. In August, 2002, she formed Greater Works, Inc., a non-profit organization devoted to philanthropy and ministry development. Rev. Stewart has received numerous honors and awards for her outstanding service to the church and the community.
